Enrollment/Re-enrollment Fee. Payment of the enrollment/re-enrollment fee is an acceptance of Bellevue Christian School’s offer to enroll/re-enroll and is confirmation the enrolled/re-enrolled student will attend Bellevue Christian. The fee is due upon enrollment/re-enrollment and non-refundable once billed or paid no matter when the student is enrolled. The enrollment/re-enrollment fee is not a deposit on, nor a prepayment of, tuition.

Priority Re-Enrollment. Open only to current BCS students re-enrolling for the 2024-2025 school year. Tuition accounts must be current. Open enrollment begins January 30 for all new families wishing to enroll in BCS. Returning students not re-enrolled by January 29 may be waitlisted; students re-enrolling after January 29 pay the open enrollment fee.

Required annual I-20 Service Fee for the maintenance of Form I-20 for any student attending on F-1 visa. The I-20 Service Fee is not a deposit on tuition. Service fee is charged annually and paid with enrollment or re-enrollment. The I-20 Service Fee is non-refundable except for F-1 visa denial prior to May 1.

Deposit for Student Expenses during the school year. Required for any student attending BCS on any visa. (Elementary expense deposit is waived if elementary student has a sibling in grades 7-12 attending on any visa.) Expense deposit is replenished each year. Expense deposit remaining in tuition account after paying all fees or tuition is refunded at graduation or withdrawal. NOTE: Transportation fee, insurance, and textbooks are not covered by the expense deposit. (See fees, page 2.)

Annual Tuition. Annual tuition is due May 1. Payment plans are offered as an alternative to making payment in full. All payment plans are governed by the applicable BCS tuition payment and withdrawal policy, outlined on Page 2 of this schedule, and the enrollment contract.
